HANDICAP TENNIS AT DUMBARTON CLUB

The four-game setback in Boston was entirely unexpected, but with a change of scenery the club is sure to do better, and there is plenty of time to regain lost ground.

Nationals Arrive in Tigerland for Three-Game Series with Detroit

By WILLIAM PEET.

Detroit, Mich., June 2.—Manager Grif-fith's tourists, after twenty-four hours of almost continuous train riding, invaded Detroit about 11 o'clock tonight, and everybody was all fagged out.

The journey from Boston was broken-by a four-hour layoff in Buffalo, where the majority of players paid a visit to Niagara Falls, only to be caught in a savage thunderstorm and drenched to their skins.

Buffalo seemed to be the meeting place of most of the American League clubs who are en route to the West. On the train with the Nationals was Owner Lannin and the Red Sox. This club stopped over in Buffalo for an exhibition team of that city. against the International League

The Athletics breezed into Buffalo at noon, and just before time for the Detroit train to pull out, the New York Yankees were seen piling off their special cars.

Coming from Boston last night it was noted that members of the Washington club did not fraternize with their Red Sox rivals, but kept aloof from the flery-hosed gang, probably due to the incident at yesterday's game, when Pitcher Ruth and the little first baseman walked right was not that members of the Washington club did not fraternize with their Red Sox rivals, but kept aloof from the flery-hosed gang, probably due to the incident at yesterday's game, when Pitcher Ruth and the little first baseman walked right.

he, too, is being saved for Griffith's club.

If the Tigers can take two or three games from Washington they will cut a full game of the Nationals' lead. While hashing at each of the Nationals' lead. While betroit will be playing Washington, Boston and Cleveland will be slashing at each other, and the Tigers, with luck, could improve their position.

Jennings is not prepared with any predictions regarding the probable standing of the clubs at the close of this Eastern invasion. Hughle, however, is still considered that that Chicago, Detroit and Boston will be staging the real fight at the finish. "The Tigers have not been hitting to form, and until they start I cannot will be staging the real fight at the finish." "The Tigers have not been hitting to form, and until they start I cannot will be staging the real fight at the finish." "The Tigers have not been hitting to form, and until they start I cannot and the Griffmen come back from the present Hughle. "Cobb and Veach have not been and wait for them to get started.

"Detroit's attack thus far, has been mainly confined to Burns and Heilman Even the pitchers have been driving in more runs than the men we expected the most of. This condition cannot continue much longer."
